

What happens to my pay and benefits

after layoff?

MEDICAL, DENTAL & VISION

- Your medical, dental and/or vision coverage ends on the last day of the month in which you leave the University.
- If enrolled in the HRA plan, your HealthEquity Visa card will deactivate as of date of separation. You can incur eligible expenses through the end of the month in which you separate, however, you will have to submit for reimbursement as your card will no longer be active.
- You may elect COBRA continuation of coverage to extend your medical, dental, and/or vision coverage for you and your dependents for up to 18 months after the last day of the month in which you leave the University.
- A COBRA packet will be sent to your mailing address from HealthEquity within two weeks of your coverage end date. If you wish to elect COBRA, you must do so within 60 days from the date of the loss of coverage.
- COBRA is retroactive to the first day of lost coverage.
- If you are 65 or older, you have the option to enroll in COBRA. However, you must enroll in Medicare, which will be primary.

FLEXIBLE SPENDING ACCOUNTS

If you are enrolled in a healthcare FSA:

- Your deductions will stop as of your last paycheck and your HealthEquity Visa card will deactivate as of date of separation.
- You can incur eligible expenses through the end of the month in which you separate, however, you will have to submit for reimbursement as your card will no longer be active.
- You have until June 15th of the following year to submit reimbursement for eligible expenses incurred through the end of the month in which you separate using the EZ Receipts app, healthequity.com, or via fax.
- You may elect COBRA continuation of coverage to extend your health care FSA coverage. If you elect COBRA, you will contribute to your health care FSA on an after-tax basis and you may submit claims for reimbursement of eligible expenses incurred through the end of the month in which you separate. Your card will not be reactivated.

If you are enrolled in a dependent care FSA:

- Your deductions will stop as of your last paycheck, but you may submit claims until June 15th of the following year for expenses incurred through the end of the month in which you separate.
